P R O C L A M A T I O N

WHEREAS, the people of South Dakota are dependent directly and indirectly upon the forests, ranges, and fields; their products and influences being essential for their livelihood, well being, and recreation, and

WHEREAS, the season of the year is now returning when the forests, ranges and fields become green as their growth begins, and

WHEREAS, the problems of protection of these natural resources from fire and other destructive influences are always with us;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, FRANK L. FARRAR, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim April 25, 1969, as and respectfully urge that our citizens become aware of the importance of preventing fire and other destructive agencies on our forests, ranges, and fields; and that the newspapers, radio and television stations of our state lend their assistance; that civic and commercial organizations unite in directing the attention of their members to the need and importance of Keeping South Dakota Green; and that our schools hold appropriate exercises on Arbor Day which is included in the observance of this proclamation.

Let our state be kept attractive to our people and those who visit us during their vacations, by assisting the Keep South Dakota Green Association in their purpose.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota to be affixed this 15th day of April in the year of Our Lord, one thousand nine hundred and sixty-nine.
